

Start-up & Investor Meet: It's All About Funding ... & India

Target group: Start-ups & Investors

Where: Betahaus (Café), Prinzessinnenstraße 19-20, 10969 Berlin

When: 02 May 2018, 18:00 – 21:00

Context: Are you a start-up that is currently looking for funding and want to know from experienced business leaders and investors how to approach investors & what to consider when looking for funding? Or do you eventually want to expand to India but are not sure about the legal requirements? Are you an investor that wants to meet new start-ups or eventually is looking to invest outside of Germany, e.g. in the exciting start-up space in India? Then this evening event is the right one for you. Shradha Sharma, CEO & Founder of YourStory, India's biggest media platform reporting on start-up stories, will outline her start-up story and how she has approached investors. Angela de Giacomo, Investment Manager Bissel Family Office & Founder Wundernova, who led investments in several start-ups will moderate a panel discussion with leading investors who will share their insights on what start-ups need to do to get investment-ready and what they should consider while approaching investors. Amrut Joshi, Founder GameChanger Law Advisors, will share his expertise on how investors can structure their investments in India and how start-ups can expand to India. With exciting start-ups & investors in the room, network as much as you can over a beer during the networking session at the end.
